

Geographical Related Masters

Key Features

As a part of business activity every subsidiary a/c created in ERP needs geographical details of a/c i.e. Area, country, port, route, city etc. For comprehending geography and making intelligent decisions.

Any subsidiary ledger can be classified or search by using any such geographical locations. Reports and MIS are based on geographical presence of client is very much helpful for decision making.

Area Master

It is used to define Area as per the customer/supplier location

Area Distance Master

It is for keeping details of distance in km from one area to another. Mainly use for Freight Management and services

State Master

It is for defining states. Codes and types of State are also define as per GST Rule

Country Master

It is for defining country name.

Port
Master

It is for defining Port name

Geographical
Master

It is for defining the location type and their Geo Code for identification

Geographical Organization Structure

It is used to define organization structure as it is HQ, Zonal or Regional Office and Hierarchy of office as with parent and child relationship

City Master

It is used for defining cities.

District
Master

It is used for defining districts

Route
Master

It is designed to help user to get the required destination

Area Class
Master

It is used for defining area according to class code

Area Group
Linking

Area Wise and Group Details can be maintained, also vice versa is applicable for the same