Report Configuration

Report Engine Configuration

This form is used to configure report engine MIS for different ERP Transactions.

Day Book Configuration

All Transaction day book/ registers report configuration facility available in this object with all required logics

Other Report Configuration

It is used for Configuring Specific Vouchers or reports based on Tcode and Tnature. Which is printed from respective forms

Query Engine Master

It is used to configure Views and their columns for output based on query.

Cheque leaf

Printing is controlled from this configuration master as the row and column specified will print the information at a proper place within the cheque leaf thus no need to develop different print formats for different cheque leaves.

Master Report Engine

It is for printing formatted reports as per the requirement. We can configure Views related to master tables and their specific columns required for printing